

Enthusiast

In my enthusiasm
To be righteous
I took a wrong direction

In my enthusiasm
To show people the way
I obstructed their path to heaven

In my enthusiasm
To be different
I did the same old thing

In my enthusiasm
To be bold and courageous
I hid behind my show of strength

In my enthusiasm
To be prophetic
I dressed my opinions in holy speak

In my enthusiasm
To ignite fires of revival
I quenched a fragile spirit

In my enthusiasm
To be the light of the world
I became somewhat dim

In my enthusiasm
To become the perfect specimen
I became raw material
